

Dear FCC,

To whom it may concern, I pay for directv so therefore i should have the freedom to listen to what i want to.. its the freedom of choice. XM has invested millions and millions of dollars to provide a service to its comsumers, so therefore they should not be penalized by the radio companies, just because XM provides a much better service than they do. If anything the radio companies should invest more money to improve their services and try compete with XM, instead of complaining to the FCC like little babies would. Respectfully
